- Article 1 National Cheng Kung University Organization Regulations for the United Clubs Association (hereafter referred to as the Regulations) were promulgated in accordance with Article 46 of the NCKU Organizational Regulations.
- Article 2 All legally registered student clubs of the university are members of the United Club Association (hereafter referred to as the Association).
- Article 3 The objective of the association is to handle and coordinate the communal business of student clubs while respecting the individual development of each club.
- Article 4 The Association shall consist of one president and six committees for General clubs, Academic and Art clubs, Recreational clubs, Sports clubs, Ministrant clubs, and Fraternity clubs; each committee shall have one chairperson and several committee members. The term of office for said officers is one year. The enforcement rules for each committee shall be established additionally by each committee.
- Article 5 The Association shall convene the Student Club Representative Assembly (hereafter referred to as the Assembly), which the person in charge of each student club shall attend. In the case where this person cannot attend the meeting, another representative must be appointed.
- Article 6 The Assembly shall have a presidium composed of the chairperson of each committee in charge of the convocation and hosting of the meeting. The convener of the presidium is elected by members of the presidium.
- Article 7 The Assembly can only be convened with the attendance of at least 25% of the total number of members.

Article 8 The Assembly shall be convened during the first and last months of each semester.

Article 9 Petitions signed by at least one-sixth of the members of the association may be used to request the convocation of a special assembly to the presidium.

Article 10 The Regulations are passed in the Student Affairs Committee Meeting before implementation. The same shall apply to any amendments to the directions.
